Admin Report-Title I Updates:

Williams: SJTHS was nominated as a high-achieving Title I Distinguished School due to our 88% promotion rate for at-risk students. We will find out the results of our application November 30th. Silent Auction December 8th. Departments are expected to each put together a basket as well. Anyone that can acquire donations from local businesses is encouraged to do so. Buses for after-school tutoring is a major expense for our Title I Funds. Students went to feed the migrant families in Armstrong, feeding over 200 families. Carlisle Interns received their first paychecks yesterday. Chef Gaynor is looking into sending Culinary Arts students to a Skills USA competition. Water Academy is monitoring the growth of their Spartana Grass.

Parental Input: Parents went to the superintendent's meeting. Mr. Forson was introduced. ASSIST reported as well and reported that 531 student are homeless in our county and after hurricane Mathew 160 students were added to this list. Parents and staff are encouraged to contact the legislators and ask for funds.

Teacher fund request: Mrs. Davis is requesting money for "application tiles" for phonemic awareness students. These are apps for the iPad. Each level is $30. $270 for levels 2-4 for 3 devices. Passed.

Open forum: We are piloting a new program called Schoology. We took 19 female students to GenWow. Mrs. Lynn and Mrs. Abramowitz are going to start a GenWow club. On Saturday we are taking 90 students to the Florida Classic in Orlando. National Honor Society is starting back up for high school students.
