STRESS MANAGEMENT FOR CAREGIVERS OF STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

FULLERWOOD TRAINING CENTER
10 HILDRETH DRIVE, ST. AUGUSTINE, FL 32084
12/03/19 FROM 6:00 PM- 7:30 PM

Goal: To understand the difference between distress and eustress, common stressors associated with being a caregiver, and the impacts on health and well-being. In addition, effective stress management to help caregivers and their students with disabilities will be shared.

To identify and meet the unique educational needs of exceptional students and to provide support and resources to enhance educational opportunities so they may become productive citizens.

Dear St. Johns County Families,

Once again, Somebody Cares St. Augustine and many of our community organizations, staff members, and stake holders have collected many coats for distribution for St. Johns County School District families in need in preparation for the upcoming Holiday and Winter seasons. In addition to coats, they have collected socks, underwear, and various other necessities that may be needed for the Holiday season. If you are interested in receiving coats or any of these items, the pick-up date is Friday, December 6th from 10:00am to 6:00pm at King Street Self Storage in St. Augustine located at 238 West King Street, St. Augustine, FL 32084. Families that are receiving coats should come to the second entrance door of the storage facility. If there are any questions, please contact Michael Israel at 904-547-7589 or Mitchell Moody at 904-547-7593 with the ASSIST Program. We wish everyone a very happy Holiday season!
